WHAT IS Five

Epic are wedding experts leaders, that understand what it takes to create exceptional wedding food.

We have created this brochure called five for couples that are looking for something different.

Five is made up of the best dishes you could possibly imagine for your big day, you could say Epic dishes.

When you partner with a caterer, you need to know you are choosing the best of the best and after countless awards, Epic's food and team are certainly that.

Although this brochure has our very best dishes throughout, we are all about tailoring your food to exactly how you want it.

Our executive chef Dave is on hand for any of our couples to either tweak dishes or create something completely new for you.

We also have our simply Epic brochure, which has a more classic range of wedding food ideas.

We really hope you get as excited as we are about the five menu, and we look forward to chatting with you about it.
